Hello Travel Documents Enquiries,

You replied with a blank email with no text as a reply (given below, "On 2020-09-28 14:15, Travel Documents Enquiries wrote:").

I would imagine you are reviewing the original email sent. The travel document would be necessary and immediate considering the need for medical treatment. A post mail was also sent to the refugee travel document office a few weeks ago.

What is the status?

Thanks,

Narendra Jana

Subject: Re: Application Update-I need to contest the need for a refugee travel document

Hello Home Office,

Could I have the ID that I sent with the application back (Drivers License)?

I need to contest the need for a travel document.

I am an asylum seeker in the UK where the goal of the country seeking asylum from is physical/intellectual disfigurement by medical mistreatment.

The local hospitals in the UK along with the local doctors understood the reason for asylum and replicated the reason for asylum in instances of clinical fraud and assault in medical settings with evidence to substantiate; a criminal situation in the UK perpetuated by local doctors to support foreign doctors (asylum foul).

The reason again is to cause intellectual/physical harm/disfigurement by withholding medications for a neurological condition (multiple sclerosis) to intentionally causing disability. This is before the asylum interview has taken place.

The situation is explained in the link below with much detail:

<https://narenjana.com/london/homeoffice/>

Given the situation I need a refugee travel permit to leave the country to seek medical help immediately in a foreign nation. There is a very good chance I would die if I didn't receive the appropriate medical treatment; a valid reason for applying for a refugee travel document.

My refugee application number is:

ASC/5271126

UK Number: 07541106744 (any day after 11 AM)

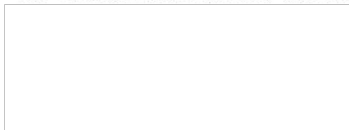

Thanks,

Narendra Jana

Dear Mr Jana

Re: Refusal of Home Office Travel Document

Thank you for your application for a Home Office Travel Document. Your application does not meet our published criteria and is therefore refused. There is more information on the criteria in our guidance notes at www.gov.uk/government/publications/apply-for-a-home-office-travel-document-form-td112-brp

The reasons for your refusal are set out below.

According to our records show that you do not have valid leave to enter/ leave to remain in the United Kindom and therefore, does not qualify for the issue of Home office travel document.

All applicants must have valid leave remain in the UK and a valid biometric residence permit (BRP) before applying for a Home office travel document.

Information on how to apply for leave to remain is available on the www.gov.uk website. If you make a successful application to remain in the UK, you may apply again for a travel document if required. You will need to pay the appropriate fee when you apply.

Please note that fees are not refunded for applications which have been refused.

Yours sincerely,
